Sensational Developments in the Hamilton Stabbing Affray at Atlantic City Monday Night.

The Husband One of New York's Four Hundred, While His Wife Was Disreputable.

infatuation, a Secret Marriage, an Old Lover and a Jealous Husband the Elements in the Affair.

ATLANTIC CITY, N. J., Aug. 28 -The Hamilton tragedy of yesterday is still the absorbing topic. Hundreds of people $600 bail as a witness.

The New York Herald this morning gives the following details of the tragedy: "As the guests were seating themselves about the dining tables at the fashionable Noll cottage on Tennessee avenue at noon yesterday, they were startled by the cries of a woman and the smashing of furniture on the second floor. The whole neighborhood heard the cries and a large crowd of excited men and women gathered about the building. One of the waiters ran to the second floor and had the courage to kick in the door lead.

It is referred to washing ton and return.

A. D. EDGAR. Gen. Agent, Helena. of the waiters ran to the second floor and had the courage to kick in the door leading to the private apartments of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ray Hamilton of New York, whence the sounds came. The picture he beheld was a tragic one. A handsome young man, very much excited, was in the middle of an elegantly furnished room, trying to calm and to hold an enraged woman, who was struggling to be released. She held a blood stained dagger to her right hand A good looking Irish released. She held a blood stained dagger in her right hand. A good looking Irish woman lay stretched upon the floor in a pool of blood, and a baby, 8 months old, was lying on the bed. The man was Robert Ray Hamilton, the desperate looking woman was his wife, the infant was their only child, and the victim who lay upon

New York social circles, but like many of his associates soon became a frequenter of houses of a questionable character in the metropolis. In one of these he met and became infatuated with the woman whom he afterward married, and who is likely at any moment to have a charge of murder entered against her, as her victim, Dr. Crosby says, can live but a few hours Mrs. Hamilton was for years the mos conspicuous adventuress in New York, and it is said many a young blood spent a fortune on her before she captured Hamilfortune on her before she captured Hamilton, it is thought for his fortune. He is about 37 years of age and she is about ten years his junior, and a hopeless victim of the morphine habit. About two years ago they were clandestinely married in New York. When this became known he was ostracised by the Four Hundred York. When this became known he was ostracised by the Four Hundred as well as his own parents. After his marriage he lived with his wife at No. 117 West Fifteenth, near Broadway. Although an outcast he had his immense fortune beside him, and after standing it as long as possible in New York, he six months ago took his wife and their child, two months old, and Mary Donnelly, the nurse, to Southern California, with the intention of locating permanently in the West. He returned disgusted, and temporarily took up his residence at Atlantic City, two weeks ago. Mrs. Hamilton's display of diamonds and gorgeous attire at the sew shore created a sensation. Then she was robbed. To-night the officers of Atlantic City are searching for the thief who stole $2,000 worth of diamonds from the room in which the tragedy occurred during the excitement this afternoon. The authorities and pawnbrokers throughout the country have also been notified of the robbery. The tragedy, which will probably end in a trial for murder, came about as follows: Joshua Mann, of No. 111 West Fifteenth street, New York, whose mother keeps a house of bad repute, is an old associate of Mrs. Hamilton. He followed the couple to California and back. A few days ago the husband, who did not know Mann, saw him, in Atlantic City, and remembering having seen him in New York, and at nearly every point in his six months' travels through the west kept a close watch on him. Sunday night Mann met Mrs. Hamhim. Sunday night Mann met Mrs. Hamilton at one of the beer gardens. Here Hamilton had them watched, but said nothing until yesterday, when his wife said she was going to New York city, but would return in a few days. It was then his indignation and temper overcame him, and grasping her by the neck he said: "You are my wife, and you remain here; let Josh Mann take care of himself." The name of Mann called by her husband astounded her. She became desperate, ran tounded her. She became desperate, ran to the bureau, picked up a Mexican dagger and made a lunge at her husband. He grappled with her and pushed her over a chair. The nurse, Mary Donnelly, hearing the noise, and having had to seperate the couple reveral times before to prevent bloodshed, rushed into the room. The wife no sooner saw her than she darted at her with the dagger, and with the words, "You she devil, you are the cause of this, you'll never lie about me again," plunged the knife into the me again," plunged the knife into the woman's abdomen and the poor woman sank to the floor.

Mrs. J. F. Swinton, who formerly kept a questionable house at No. 111 West Fifteenth street, New York, is prominent in connection with the tragedy. She is the mother of Joshua Mann, who is the son of her first husband. She is bent and withered, and talks about the bloody affair in the cold blooded manner of a vice hardened ered, and talks about the bloody affair in the cold blooded manner of a vice-hardened woman. She and her son and daughter are stopping at the Verona house. She claims to have been instrumental in bringing about the marriage of her protege to Hamilton, and since the unholy alliance, she and her family have been dependent on his well filled purse.

Justice Irving says that Mrs. Donnelly has made a statement in which she posiing to take her life. The nurse adds that Hamilton is infatuated with the woman, who is really his wife, as the marriage cerwho is really his wife, as the marriage certificate is in existence and can be produced readily. Some startling developments are expected concerning the woman Swinton, readily. Some startling developments are expected concerning the woman Swinton, which will, no doubt, Include the history of the theft of $3,000 of Hamilton's money, a race across the continent to apprehend the culprit, and other private matters, fast coming to the surface. The life of the Hamiltons was a continual round of extravagance. Mrs. Hamilton's costumes were elaborate and varied, and her diamonds the envy of the sea shore.

HOME TESTIMONY.

HELENA, Oct. 7, 1887.
I was suffering from an unusually bad l was suffering from an unusually bad cough, my lungs were sore and congested, and I consulted one of the best physicians in Helena, whose prescriptions failed to relieve me. I became alarmed, and at the suggestion of a friend purchased a bottle of Acker's English Remedy for coughs, and after taking it according to directions was completely cured. I therefore cheerfully recommend it.

Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton were brought before Justice Irving this morning. The testimony showed the facts already related in these dispatches.

Mrs. Hamilton was remanded to jail without bail, and the husband held in $600 bail as a witness.

woman was his wife, the infant was their only child, and the victim who lay upon the floor with her intestines hanging from an ugly gash in her abdomen, was Mary Donneily, the wet nurse, who has been with the couple for some months. The unfortunate woman was still alive, but doctors who were called in soon afterward said there was little hope of her recovery. The story of the affray and of the people connected with it, is a sensational one. Robert Ray Hamilton, who was for eight years a member of the New York legislature from the Murray Hill district, New York city, is a son of Gen. Schuyier Hamilton, a leader of the New York Four Hundred, and a great grandson of Alexander Hamilton. He is a member of the New York bar and has a large income, which he spends lavishly upon himself and friends. The story of his courtship and marriage is as remarkable as the story of this tragedy is thrilling.

Hamilton was for many years a lion in New York social circles, but like many of his associates soon became a frequenter of the text.

Dyspepsia

Is one of the most prevalent of diseases. Few persons have perfect digestion.
One of Ayer's Pills, taken after dinner, or a dose at night before retiring, never fails to give relief in the worst cases, and wonderfully assists the process of nutrition. As a family medicine, Ayer's Pills are unequaled.

James Quinn, 90 Middle st., Hartford, Conn., testifies: "I have used Ayer's Pills for the past thirty years and consider them an invaluable family medicine. I know of no better remedy for liver troubles, and have always found them a prompt cure for dyspepsia."

Lucius Alexander, of Marblehead, Mass., was long a severe sufferer from Mass., was long a severe sufferer from Dyspepsia, complicated with enlarge-ment of the Liver, most of the time being unable to retain any food in his stomach. Three boxes of Ayer's Pills

Frederic C. Greener, of East Dedham, Mass., for several months troubled with Indigestion, was cured before he used half a box of these Pills.
